(1) Schedule 2, clause 2(4)—delete subclause (4) and substitute:

(4) In particular, if a provision of this Law appears to impose a duty on a Commonwealth officer or body to perform a function or exercise a power, the duty is taken to be imposed by the provision to the extent to which imposing the duty—

(a) is within the legislative powers of this jurisdiction; and

(b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body.

(4a) To avoid doubt, a provision of this Law does not impose the duty on the Commonwealth officer or body to the extent to which imposing the duty would—

(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or

(b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of this jurisdiction.

(4b) If imposing on the Commonwealth officer or body the duty to do that thing would—

(a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or

(b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of both the State and the Commonwealth, the provision of this Law is taken instead to confer on the Commonwealth officer or body a power to do that thing at the discretion of the Commonwealth officer or body (as the case may require).

(2) Schedule 2, clause 42(4)—delete subclause (4) and substitute:

(4) In particular, if a provision of the National Electricity Rules appears to impose a duty on a Commonwealth officer or body to perform a function or exercise a power, the duty is taken to be imposed by the provision to the extent to which imposing the duty—

(a) is within the legislative powers of this jurisdiction; and

(b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body.

- (4a) To avoid doubt, a provision of the National Electricity Rules does not impose the duty on the Commonwealth officer or body to the extent to which imposing the duty would—
- (a) contravene any constitutional doctrine under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or
 - (b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of this jurisdiction.
- (4b) If imposing on the Commonwealth officer or body the duty to do that thing would—
- (a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or
 - (b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of both the State and the Commonwealth,
- the provision of the National Electricity Rules is taken instead to confer on the Commonwealth officer or body a power to do that thing at the discretion of the Commonwealth officer or body (as the case may require).

24—Amendment of Schedule 3—Savings and transitionals

Schedule 3—after Part 16 insert:

Part 17—Savings and transitional provisions related to Ministerial Council on Energy amendments

33—Definitions

In this Part—

Amendment Act means the Statutes Amendment (National Energy Laws) (Omnibus) Act 2020;

commencement day means the day on which section 5 of the Amendment Act comes into operation.

34—References to Ministerial Council on Energy

- (1) On and from the commencement day, a reference to the Ministerial Council on Energy or MCE in an Act, a legislative instrument, any other kind of instrument, or a contract, agreement or other document will be taken to be a reference to the MCE as defined in section 2 (as amended by section 5 of the Amendment Act).
- (2) In this clause—agreement includes the Australian Energy Market Agreement or any other intergovernmental agreement to which this jurisdiction is a party.

35—Rights under certain change of law provisions in agreements or deeds not to be triggered

- 5
- (1) The substitution of the definition of the MCE by section 5 of the Amendment Act is not to be regarded as a change of law (however defined) under any agreement or deed in effect on the commencement day.
 - (2) Subclause (1) applies despite any provision in any agreement or deed to the contrary.

36—Rights under contracts etc

- 10
- (1) The substitution of the definition of the MCE by section 5 of the Amendment Act does not affect a right, obligation, liability or immunity of the MCE under an agreement, deed or other instrument entered into by the MCE and in effect on the commencement day.
 - 15 (2) On and from the commencement day, a reference to the Ministerial Council on Energy or MCE in an agreement, deed or other instrument referred to in subclause (1) will be taken to be a reference to the MCE as defined in section 2 (as amended by section 5 of the Amendment Act).
 - 20 (3) Subclause (1) applies despite any provision in any agreement, deed or other instrument to the contrary.

37—Saving of decisions etc

The substitution of the definition of the MCE by section 5 of the Amendment Act does not affect the validity of—

- 25
- (a) any decision or direction made by the MCE before the commencement day; or
 - (b) any appointment in accordance with a recommendation or nomination of the MCE made before the commencement day.

Part 4—Amendment of *National Energy Retail Law25—Amendment of section 2—Interpretation

- 30
- (1) Section 2(1), definition of application Act—delete "the Act of a jurisdiction that applies the National Energy Retail Law set out in the Schedule to the National Energy Retail Law (South Australia) Act 2011 of South Australia as a law of the jurisdiction" and substitute:

35 an Act of a participating jurisdiction that applies, as a law of that jurisdiction, this Law or any part of this Law

- (2) Section 2(1), definition of MCE—delete the definition and substitute:

MCE means the group of Ministers (constituting or forming part of a Ministerial Council, Standing Council of Ministers or similar body (however described)) responsible for energy matters at a national level comprising
5 9 Ministers as follows:

- (a) 1 Minister from the Commonwealth;
- (b) 1 Minister from each State (totalling 6 Ministers);
- (c) 1 Minister from each Territory (totalling 2 Ministers),

acting in accordance with its own procedures;

- 10 (3) Section 2(1)—after the definition of standing offer prices insert:

Territory means the Australian Capital Territory or the Northern Territory.

26—Substitution of section 9

Section 9—delete the section and substitute:

9—Participating jurisdictions

- 15 (1) The following jurisdictions are participating jurisdictions for the purposes of this Law—

- (a) the State of South Australia; and
- (b) the Commonwealth, a Territory or a State (other than South 20 Australia) if there is in force, as part of the law of that jurisdiction, a law that applies this Law or any part of this Law (whether by a law that corresponds to Part 2 of the National Energy Retail Law (South Australia) Act 2011 of South Australia or by some other law).

- 25 (2) If a law of a participating jurisdiction referred to in subsection (1)(b) ceases to be in force, the jurisdiction ceases to be a participating jurisdiction.

27—Amendment of section 10—Ministers of participating jurisdictions

Section 10(b) and (c)—delete paragraphs (b) and (c) and substitute:

- 30 (b) the Ministers of the Crown in right of the other participating jurisdictions administering the laws of those jurisdictions that apply this Law or any part of this Law (whether by a law that corresponds to Part 2 of the National Energy Retail Law (South Australia) Act 2011 of South Australia or by some other law).

28—Amendment of section 214—Disclosure of confidential information authorised if detriment does not outweigh public benefit

Section 214—after subsection (7) insert:

- 5 (7a) Despite anything to the contrary in this Law, this section is taken to be an exhaustive statement of the requirements of the natural justice hearing rule in relation to—
- (a) the AER's decision under subsection (1) to disclose information given in confidence to the AER, and
- 10 (b) without limiting paragraph (a), if the AER's decision under subsection (1) is to disclose the confidential information, the AER's opinion—
- (i) that the disclosure of the information would not cause detriment to the person who gave the information or, if the person who gave the information in turn received the information from another person, that other person (as the case may be); or
- 15 (ii) that, although the disclosure of the information would cause detriment to such a person, the public benefit in disclosing it outweighs that detriment.

Note—

The heading to section 214 will be amended to "Disclosure of protected information authorised if detriment does not outweigh public benefit" when this section comes into operation.

29—Amendment of section 230—Notice of MCE directed review

25 Section 230(1)—delete "and in a newspaper circulating generally throughout Australia"

Section 320(3)—delete subsection (3) and substitute:

- 35 (3) In particular, if a provision of this Law or the Rules appears to impose a duty on a Commonwealth officer or body to perform a function or exercise a power, the duty is taken to be imposed by the provision to the extent to which imposing the duty—
- (a) is within the legislative powers of this jurisdiction; and
- 40 (b) is consistent with the constitutional doctrines under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body.

(3a) To avoid doubt, a provision of this Law or the Rules does not impose the duty on the Commonwealth officer or body to the extent to which imposing the duty would—

- 5 (a) contravene any constitutional doctrine under the Constitution of the Commonwealth restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or
- (b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of this jurisdiction.

(3b) If imposing on the Commonwealth officer or body the duty to do that thing would—

- 10 (a) contravene any constitutional doctrine restricting the duties that may be imposed on a Commonwealth officer or body; or
- (b) otherwise exceed the legislative powers of both the State and the Commonwealth,

15 the provision of this Law or the Rules is taken instead to confer on the Commonwealth officer or body a power to do that thing at the discretion of the Commonwealth officer or body (as the case may require).
